GHS IS CROWDED - Grayling High School is a crowded place these days. It can be observed in the classrooms that a steadily increasing enrollment over the past couple decades has put space at a premium in the building. But the crowded condition can best be observed when classes change and the halls at the school are literally alive with students.

Worthy Of Support

This newspaper is pleased to salute a "week" which actually promotes the interests of the general public-National Wildlife Week, March 17-23, 1963.

Spotlighting important conservation problems each year, National Wildlife Week in the past has alerted us to the need for preservation of several valuable wild birds and animals, the need for conservation of wetlands for waterfowl, to the advisability of considering wildlife and recreation in public land management policies, and to the national disgrace of water pollution.

Theme of the 1963 observance is "Chemical Pesticides are POISON-Handle with Care," most timely concled and this is being followed rapsidering the recent release of Rachel Carson's book, "Sient Spring," and the increasing variety of deadly chemical poisons for controlling insects, rodents and before all those who have subother pests on the shelves of our neighborhood stores.

It is altogether too easy to let the relatively uncontrelled distribution and use of these poisons go unchecked. Local Families Well Covered By Insurance

(Special to the Avalanche) NEW YORK — As of 1962, Crawford County residents were found to be carrying more life insurance than they ever did. According to the latest figures, the average amount of coverage, per local family, was $8,500. The new high is the result of a steady build-up in recent years -ua-thus form of protection. Such a development has been noted in the areas of the country where in-comes have been on the rise. Increasing their life insurance protection is one of several steps that people have been taking to add to their financial security. Another has been to put money aside into savings.

The trend has been in these directions, despite the fact that most people are covered by Social Security, with its provisions for oldage pensions and disability insur-

Figures on the subject are reported on a national and state basms in the current Life Insurance Fact Book, Michigan.

In terms of the average family, what does this amount to? Related to income levels throughout the state, as detailed in the latest Sales Management report, it is equivalent to 21.0 months' net earnings,

The sharp rise in the past year as been attributed, in part, to the setback that occurred in the stock market. Many investors, who had been building up funds there for particular purposes, such as a child's college education, were made more aware of the hazards that were involved.

Another part of the increase, it is noted, was due to the rapid growth of group life insurance, which is usually job-connected in-surance. More than two out of
